If you do not know what service to refer to that is ok, we will connect the whānau to the most suitable service/s based on the information provided in the immediate needs section.

Manu Tāpiki

Health Coaching

Supporting whānau to gain the knowledge, skills, tools, and confidence to take an active part in their health journey to achieve their wellbeing goals. Health needs may include but are not limited to mental health, addictions, long-term conditions, nutrition, physical activity, pain management, health literacy, pregnancy, stopping smoking.

Kaupapa Māori Primary Mental Health and Addiction Service

(Grounded on kaupapa Māori principles and practices, strong in Te Reo Māori, skilled in tikanga and steeped in Mātauranga Māori, this service offers):

One to one and whānau support to improve the wellbeing of people experiencing distress or mental health or addiction challenges.

Ngā Kaihautū is a ten-week journey of healing, self-discovery, and growth for Tāne that aims to connect them back to their Māoritanga through a variety of activities.

Mango Tū is a twelve-week group programme for Rangatahi that aims to enhance their strengths to prepare them for aspirational futures through a variety of engaging activities and experiences.

Te puna o Aewa Rongoā services provide a range of traditional and contemporary healing practices to enhance health and wellbeing.

Emergency Housing Navigation

Support for whānau in emergency housing to find sustainable housing options while addressing the challenges that impact on their wellbeing.

Te Iwaiwa – Pua Wānanga

Te Iwaiwa - Pua Wānanga

Hapū Wānanga for māmā, pāpā and whānau expecting a pēpī during any stage of hapūtanga

Hāpai Huānga

Hāpai Huānga

Support for offenders involved in family harm to empower them to make positive changes with a strong focus on cultural identity and Te Ao Māori.

Te Arawa Whānau Ora

Whānau Ora Paeārahi

Walk alongside whānau to move beyond crisis to realise their potential and support them to identify and achieve their aspirations. Paeārahi will support whānau to develop a whānau plan and provide navigation to services that can support this journey.

Breast and Cervical Screening

Provide information about the breast and cervical screening programmes, and support services to book and attend appointments

Tamariki Coordination Service

Coordination of a multi-agency approach to develop one shared plan that builds on whānau needs and aspirations with a focus on Tamariki wellbeing
